APRIL DONATION UPDATE

The Huntington Beach Neighborhood Watch Program (HBNW) fiscal year is from July 1 to June 30 each year. We have estimated we will need approximately $24,300 this year to cover the various HBNW program expenses which include, but are not limited to, newsletter assembly, distribution costs, returned postage, mailing labels, etc. From the start of our fiscal year to now, we have received $13,576.74 in donations and newsletter advertisements— we have $10,723.26 to go by June 30, 2013. The HBNW Board thanks you and our advertisers for your support and generous donations. A $6 donation pays for each subscriber's distribution costs; a $10 donation helps with these costs and other needed expenses and puts your name in the Newsletter as a contributor; and a $25 or more donation accomplishes the above, plus you will receive a HBNW sticker and a token of appreciation. Remember, HBNW is a non-profit organization; donations are tax deductible.

As a resident of the city, we encourage you to review the HBNW program budget and expenses.

We strongly suggest you sign up to receive your Newsletter either electronically or through the mail. The Newsletter has valuable crime prevention information and crime statistics. Donations are not necessary to receive the Newsletter, but if you wish to make a donation, please make your check payable to:

NATIONAL
LAW ENFORCEMENT
WEEK (aka BLUE RIBBON WEEK)

May 12 to May 18 2013

This is our opportunity to honor the brave men and women who have paid the ultimate sacrifice to protect us and our families. It is also our honor to recognize the Law Enforcement Officers that risk their lives every day and have given up numerous holidays, birthdays, anniversaries, etc., with their families to ensure we can safely enjoy quality time with ours.

Show your support by wearing a blue ribbon all week and putting one on your vehicle or in front of your home. You can pick one up at the front counter of the Huntington Beach Police Department or look for the booth at Surf City Nights in Downtown HB on May 14th, 2013. We will be handing out blue ribbons and other valuable crime prevention information.

For more information or to drop off a card or picture for our Officers and other support staff please call the Community Liaison Unit at 714-536-5933.

Here are some facts: According to preliminary data compiled by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund, 127 law enforcement officers have died in the line of duty in 2012. From April 2012 until April 2013, 34 officers have died; an increase of 10 percent.

"DEATH OF AN INNOCENT".....

(The author is unknown.)

During the two minutes it takes for you to read this poem, another person will be injured in a drunk driving accident. Many people have been touched by the following "Drunk Driving Poem"....

I went to a party, Mom,
I remembered what you said.
You told me not to drink, Mom,
So I drank soda instead.

I really felt proud inside, Mom,
The way you said I would.
I didn't drink and drive, Mom,
Even though the others said I should.

I know I did the right thing, Mom,
I know you are always right.
Now the party is finally ending, Mom,
As everyone is driving out of sight.

As I got into my car, Mom,
I knew I'd get home in one piece.
Because of the way you raised me,
So responsible and sweet.

I started to drive away, Mom,
But as I pulled out into the road,
The other car didn't see me, Mom,
And hit me like a load.

As I lay there on the pavement, Mom,
I hear the policeman say,
"The other guy is drunk," Mom,
And now I'm the one who will pay.

I'm lying here dying, Mom...
I wish you'd get here soon.
How could this happen to me, Mom?
My life just burst like a balloon.

There is blood all around me, Mom,
And most of it is mine.
I hear the medic say, Mom,
I'll die in a short time.

I just wanted to tell you, Mom,
I swear I didn't drink.
It was the others, Mom.
The others didn't think.

He was probably at the same party as I.
The only difference is, he drank
And I will die.

Why do people drink, Mom?
It can ruin your whole life.
I'm feeling sharp pains now.
Pains just like a knife.

The guy who hit me is walking, Mom,
And I don't think it's fair.
I'm lying here dying
And all he can do is stare.

Tell my brother not to cry, Mom.
Tell Daddy to be brave.
And when I go to heaven, Mom,
Put "Daddy's Girl" on my grave.

Someone should have told him, Mom,
Not to drink and drive.
If only they had told him, Mom,
I would still be alive.

My breath is getting shorter, Mom.
I'm becoming very scared.
Please don't cry for me, Mom.
When I needed you,
you were always there.

I have one last question, Mom.
Before I say good bye.
I didn't drink and drive,
So why am I the one to die?

It's Graduation Time: Make it a Sober Graduation

There will be a lot of celebrating and parties to attend. Parents, please talk to your children and help ensure your child and many others will get home safely.

Congratulations to our 2013 HBPD Volunteers Selected to be Honored as Outstanding Community Volunteers

Six volunteers, selected by their peers, were honored at a special luncheon hosted by OneOC at the Disneyland Hotel. The luncheon was for all Volunteer Honorees from various organizations in Orange County. This month, we will honor three of our six winners; next month we will thank the other three.

If you see our honorees in the community, be sure to take the opportunity to tell them thank you for their service.

Rosemarie Byer, Volunteers in Police Services (VIPS)

Rosemarie has been a member of our VIPS (Volunteers in Police Services) Program since 2000. During this time she has assisted with a variety of duties and assignments. She presently works the Downtown sub-station, assists the Curb Crime Program, special community and school events, and is in training to give PD tours. All the volunteers enjoy working with Rosemarie because they know she is dependable, knowledgeable, hard working, and committed. She is always professional and willing to help wherever and whenever she is needed with a smile. It is an honor to have Rosemarie Byer nominated as one of HBPD's 2013 Spirit of Volunteerism Awards recipients.

Florence "Flo" Pach, Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP)

She goes on patrol conducting vacation house checks and removing illegally posted signs; assists at the main station front desk, and helps out at special events and school programs. Flo also assists monthly preparing labels, collating, and assembling the HB Neighborhood Watch Newsletter for mailing and distribution. In addition, she keeps track of all the RSVP members – sending cards and healing wishes when someone is ill or recuperating from surgery. She always finds time to bake cakes, cookies, etc. for all the police personnel. Some of the words used to describe Flo are kind-hearted, dedicated, hard working and always having a smile on her face. It is an honor to have Florence Pach nominated as one of HBPD's 2013 Spirit of Volunteerism Awards recipients.

Cheryl Tonic, HB Neighborhood Watch Newsletter Assembly Member

Cheryl Tonic has been a member of the Huntington Beach Neighborhood Watch Newsletter Assembly team for approximately 3 years. The HB Neighborhood Watch Newsletter Assembly group meets on the 2nd Thursday of each month, rain or shine. They collate approximately 13,000 newsletters, fold them, label them, and prepare them for mailing and distribution each month. Cheryl is one of the first to arrive and last to leave. She helps move tables and chairs into place, and assists in preparing the work stations for all the other workers (usually 25 to 35 people) that come to assist. When all the newsletters are prepared, Cheryl will always make sure everything is picked up and tables and chairs are back in place before she leaves. She works quickly and is very efficient. Cheryl welcomes everyone with a smile and makes them feel appreciated. She is one of our main trainers for new people. She seems genuinely interested in everyone, always upbeat, happy, and promotes a very positive atmosphere.
