LOCAL APPOINTMENTS LIST – 2022

Opportunity for Public Service on City Boards, Commissions, Committees

CITY BOARDS, COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES TERMS WHICH HAVE EXPIRATION DATES OCCURRING IN CALENDAR YEAR 2022

This list is prepared to inform members of the community of opportunities to serve on City boards, commissions, committees, and to invite applications from interested parties per Chapter 11, Section 54970, Part 1, Division 2, Title 5 of the California Government Code.

Please note that the following information pertains to openings that will be available in 2022 because of expiration of members' terms. Very often during the year there will be openings on boards, commissions and committees because members resign. These openings are posted separately at the Civic Center and Huntington Central Library, and are listed on the city's website at: https://www.huntingtonbeachca.gov/government/boards_commissions/notice_of_vacancies.cfm.

Applications for public service on a City Board, Commission, Committee can be accessed here: https://huntingtonbeachca.gov/government/boards_commissions/.

Mission/Purpose: The primary focus of the Personnel Commission is employee arbitration issues. The Commissions function and duties include:

- Hear appeals on grievance matters for final decision except for such matters as may be submitted to final and binding arbitration;
- Hear appeals from decisions of the City Manager or his/her designee made pursuant to the employer-employee relations resolution;
- Determine hearing procedures and select hearing officers and advisory arbitrators for hearings (subject to provisions of the MOU);
- Review impasse matters as provided in the employer employee relations resolution; and
- Perform such other functions as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution.

Members and Appointments: The Personnel Commission consists of five members, each of which are recommended by two Council liaisons and appointed by a majority of the City Council. The members serve a two-year term, and are limited to serve two consecutive terms. No member shall hold any paid office or employment with City during, or for a period of one year after terminating service as a member of the Commission.

Meeting Dates and Times: Meetings take place at least quarterly and on an as-needed basis. All meetings are open to the public, and special meetings may be called in conformance with the Ralph M. Brown Act. Staff support is provided by Brittany Mello, Administrative Services Department at (714) 536-5537.

Necessary Requirements: Must be a U.S. citizen and elector / resident of the City of Huntington Beach. Experience with human resources and/or labor law is beneficial.

Vacancies: In the event a member retires or is unable to complete his term, an appointment shall be made to fill the remainder of the unexpired term. To find out the current vacancies, please visit the Notice of Vacancies webpage.
