Details:

On April 2, 2010, at about 8:50 p.m. residents near the 16100 block of Sher Lane called 911 to report a shooting in Sun View Park. Officers arrived and found numerous subjects in the area and a 15 year old female with several gun shot wounds to her legs.

The female was treated by the Huntington Beach Fire Department at the scene. She was transported to UCI Medical Center where she was treated for serious, but not life threatening injuries.

Preliminary information is that several Asian gang members arranged a meeting at this location. The shooting was a result of a dispute between the gang members during their meeting. The female victim appears to be part of this arranged meeting.

Huntington Beach police officers detained several vehicles and pedestrians fleeing the scene after the shooting. One male adult was arrested leaving the area for a probation violation. At this time, there is no description of the suspect who shot the 15 year old female victim. The investigation is still ongoing by the Huntington Beach Gang Unit investigators.

Anyone with information regarding this shooting is requested to call the Huntington Beach Police Department Gang Unit at 714-536-5951.
