Details:

Arrestee: Carter, Gary Lee – Age 43 from Huntington Beach

On 4-1-12 at 8:20 AM, Huntington Beach Police officers responded to the 200 block of 19th St for a burglary investigation that occurred over night while the residents were inside sleeping. It appears the suspect entered through an unlocked door and stole Ipads, a watch and other items from the downstairs living room.

The officers were able to trace the location of the Ipads using the GPS device that the victim activated. The Ipads were traced to Arrestee Carters residence on 22nd street. A parole search was conducted and several items were located. Burglary detectives were called out and were able to link Carter to similar type burglaries in the downtown area and some of those victims have been notified. Other items recovered included skateboards, jewelry and clothing. At least one other burglary also occurred as the victims slept. Most of the recovered property has been identified but Detectives are in the process of contacting other potential victims.

Carter was charged with Residential Burglary and parole violation.

The investigation is continuing. Carter has prior arrests prior for narcotics violations and possession of stolen property.
